

My most favorite travel time this year was a pilgrimage I made in November which went from Montserrat Monastery to Lourdes, across Northern Spain to Santiago de Compostela and down to Fatima. There were only 15 of us and our wonderful guide and driver. But it seemed we all bonded into a wonderful spirit of friendship, sharing, prayers, Mass and exciting places together. It was truly a spiritual trip – one of the most spiritual I have ever made. One which I will never forget.
